

MANY NEW TOYS ON THE COUNTERS

Santa Claus Has Been Busy on Unique Play-things.

MARATHON RACER
MAKES NICE GIFT

Grocery Stores With "Make Believe" Provisions and Automobiles Can Be Found.

SUGGESTIONS HERE FOR BUSY READERS

Shop early; it's the best all around.

Toys again today, and the variety is growing.

A toy grocery store is a unique product of 1909.

With the new Marathon racer—price about $2 and $3.

A Roosevelt African hunting suit, complete, for $3.50 at some of the stores.

A railway, with tunnels, union stations, and other accessories, for $2 up.

Encourage the little housekeepers by giving them the miniature grocery store.

Another jaunt around the toy counters this morning revealed another large batch of new toys—something that the youngsters haven't seen before.

About half the enjoyment a little fellow gets out of Christmas, you know, is in the possession of something that he thinks his juvenile neighbor didn't get from Santa Claus. Those who shop early and carefully this season will not lack the opportunity to gratify this childish pride.

Something Really New.

I found something really new in a Marathon racer—just out—a contraption with three wheels, much on the velocipede order, except that it is flat, has no seat, but with just a little board to stand upon while gliding down hill.
Price, about $2.

As a rather sister toy to the child's theaters I mentioned yesterday, I ran across a miniature train, horse, wagon, completely rigged with harness, wagon, and toy horses. Something unique and reasonable at $2 and $3.

The admirer of the Teddy bear and of our former President himself can fit their boys out with a complete African hunting suit, complete, for $3.50 at some of the stores.

Another Unique Gift.
A toy grocery store, with a lot of toy provisions, if I may use the term, can be had for $1.50 at some of the department stores.

There's an extra large toy automobile out this season, on the runabout type, with a rumble seat behind, just like the grown folks are wont to break the speed record with. The mechanically inclined boy will be delighted with a railroad of unusual proportions, with a tunnel, and a union station thrown in, price from $2 up.

A circus procession, with clowns, animal cages and other things that always come with the annual visit of the tented shows, is being generally displayed.
They come not at all unreasonable considering the quality of the gift—$10.
Think it over tonight and resolve to start out shopping early Monday morning. You'll do better by yourself, and, in addition, you'll please the merchants.
They are ready for you, so there's really no use whatever in waiting until December begins to wane.

A WISE SHOPPER.

SUES MOTHER-IN-LAW.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Nov. 13.—Suit to recover for $24 weeks' board of his mother-in-law and for expense for provisions incurred through three visits from his father-in-law has been begun in the superior court by Thomas C.
Wallace, of Thordike. The defendant is John J. Dwyer, of Hartford, executor of Wallace's estate, $108 for hospitality extended to his wife's parents.

MRS. ASTOR AT HOME.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—Mrs. John Jacob Astor, who recently procured a secret divorce, has arrived in New York from French Lick, Sping. She was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. L. S.
Thompson, and also by her small daughter and her maid.

HAVE EIGHTEEN CHILDREN.

BERWICK, Pa., Nov. 13.—Eighteen children have been born to Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Deppay, of West Berwick.
Of this number fourteen are living, nine girls and five boys.

LEADER IN GOTHAM "400"

MRS. OLIVER HARRIMAN.

ONE of the most beautiful of the younger New York matrons is Mrs. Oliver Harriman. She was Miss Grace Carley. Her husband, who is related to the late E. H. Harriman's family, has a beautiful home in Westchester, near White Plains, where are some of the finest residential estates of New York's millionaires.

POOR OLD UNCLE SAM GETS FEW PRESENTS

But for Once He Is Recipient of Something for Nothing—Mrs. Frederick Thompson's Gift of a $20,000 Postoffice Accepted With Thanks.

It is not often that anyone takes pity on Uncle Sam and gives him something for nothing. Secretary MacVeagh, of the Treasury Department, however, has written a letter to Mrs. Frederick F. Thompson, of New York city, thanking her for helping the Government to pay for a handsome postoffice site at Canandaigua, N. Y.

The site is in Representative Payne's district. He got an appropriation through to buy a site for a postoffice building. Then it was found the people of the town wanted a fine site opposite the court house. The appropriation was not enough and so Mrs.
Thompson, who has done much for Williams College, took $20,000, out of her own pocket and added it to the appropriation.

Now that the site has been acquired, she has had plans for a new postoffice prepared by a Boston firm of architects. The Treasury Department has accepted these plans as a suggestion, not being allowed to accept them outright. They will be slightly altered and used and bids obtained.

The cost of the building proposed by Mrs. Thompson's plans will exceed the limit of the appropriation and it is likely Mrs. Thompson will make up the difference. This will give Canandaigua a beautiful colonial postoffice in harmony with its court house.

Secretary MacVeagh, being anxious to encourage a good example, has written Mrs. Thompson a letter of thanks.

WIFE WON'T GET UP, SETS BED ON FIRE

Then She Jumps Out and Dashes to the Police—Husband Gets Six Months.

PATERSON, N. J., Nov. 13.—"Get up and cook breakfast, and be quick about it," growled Steve Wamenskie to his wife early this morning.

"Oh, don't bother me, I'm sleepy," she replied peevishly.

"Oh, all right," retorted Wamenskie significantly, as he himself arose. "Oh, all right, then; I'll fix you." And he did. Wamenskie sought the match box and, striking a light, set fire to the bed.
Mrs. Wamenskie wasn't slow in getting up a moment later. But she didn't cook breakfast. Instead she went to the police and told her story. She had a narrow escape.

Wamenskie was subsequently sent to jail for six months.

BODY OF MRS. WARE TO BE TAKEN HOME

The body of Mrs. Angeline Dennison Ware, who died yesterday at 1537 I street, will be taken to Cincinnati tonight for interment.

Mrs. Ware was widow of T. C. Ware, city solicitor of Cincinnati and a law associate of former Senator Foraker and Alphonso Taft, father of President Taft. Reverses came and Mrs. Ware came to Washington to become a clerk in the Pension Bureau. She was eighty-four years old.

MRS. ROOSEVELT SAILS.

NAPLES, Nov. 13.—Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt and her daughter, Miss Ethel, are on board the steamship Konig Albert, which sailed this morning for New York. Several friends bade them farewell.

'BUS KILLS WOMAN.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—Mrs. Frank C.
Jones, wife of a New York capitalist, and daughter of the late George B.
Lamar, a New York banker, was run down and killed by a Fifth avenue motor "bus." She was on her way to a bank and had $2,000 in her purse.

TWO OLDEST TEACHERS.

LANCASTER, Pa., Nov. 13.—Lancaster county lays claim to the two oldest school teachers in the State. They are James and Francis McClure, of Sallis-bury township, 85 and 83 years old, respectively, and are in excellent health.

NEIGHBOR'S OPERA INTERESTS CAPITAL

Baltimore Season Opens With Gadske in "Tannhauser."

Washingtonians who attended the Metropolitan Opera Company's presentation of "Tannhauser" at the Lyric Theater in Baltimore last night today are convinced that the twenty-week season in the Monumental City will mean much to music lovers in the Capital.

This for the reason that the special train service inaugurated by the opera company for the benefit of Washington patrons is such that the performances are brought within an hour's ride from one's home in the Capital.

The special last night left the Mount Royal station at 12:15, and the Washington contingent, seventy-five in number, was on its way out of the Union Station in Washington shortly before 1 o'clock. T. Arthur Smith had charge of the arrangements for the tickets and transportation, and personally saw to it that the Washington folk were properly looked after.

The opera was the same presentation that on by the company under direction of Otto Grotz, a successful Baltimorean with Opera House in New York, with Gadske in the role of Elizabeth. She sang in her usual superb form.

Jane Noria made her debut in the role of Venus, and her voice found favor with the crowded house. Carl Jörn, as Tannhauser, did not come up to the standard throughout the evening, but his voice is musical. Allen Hinkley, as the Landgrave, drew his share of applause, with a powerful voice and clear enunciation. Otto Grotz, as Wolfram, did not make a pronounced hit, his voice apparently being too light for the part.

Glen Hall, as Walter; Adolph Muhlmann, as Biterwolf; Julius Bayer, as Schreiber; Frederick Grotz, as Reim-mar; Lenora Sparks, as the young shepherd, and Marie Mattfeld, Rosina Van Dyck, and Henrietta Wakefield, as singers, were the other leading members.

Alfred Hirtz, the conductor of the orchestra, did more than his share to make the performance a success. His seventy-five pieces gave the full score in a way that was a revelation.
The theater, the only one in Baltimore with Washington that could accommodate the entire orchestra, by the way, was crowded with the wealth and fashion of Baltimore, and there were more than 400 standing-room tickets sold.

Next Friday night Puccini's opera, "Tosca," will be presented by Madames Farfar, and Snelling, and Monsignors Bonci, Scotti, Gianoli-Galletti, Ananias, Bada, Missiano, and Reschiglian.

FAMILY IS POISONED EATING TOADSTOOLS

HAMMONTON, N. J., Nov. 13.—Eating toadstools in mistake for mushrooms nearly proved fatal to Mrs. J. D.
Rubertone, her children and her husband. A friend brought in what looked to be nice mushrooms and Mrs. Rubertone prepared them. Shortly afterward the members of her household became deadly sick. Dr. Charles Cunningham, who was summoned, administered antidotes in time to save their lives.

READINGS FOR BLIND AT THE BIG LIBRARY

An excellent program of readings and song recitals for the benefit of the blind have been arranged at the Congressional Library. These entertainments will be given on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday between 2:30 and 4:30.

The program is as follows:
November 18—Miss Patrick in selected readings.

November 19—Song recital by William Conrad Mills, tenor of the First Congregational Church; Mrs. Elsie Bond Richoff, soprano.

November 20—The Rev. R. Ashton Curtis, selected stories.

TATTOO BRINGS FORTUNE.

PITTSBURG, N. Y., Nov. 13.—In Boston, in the days of the volunteer fire department, the fire ladders considered it a matter of pride to wear tattoo marks on their hands. James J. Corbett was one of them. On his right hand he had tattooed a conspicuous "S" and on his left hand his initials "J. J. C." Now those tattoo marks may be the means of bringing a fortune to Corbett, bricklayer and roofer, a fortune of $300,000. This possible by the fact that he has a brother, William J. Corbett, of Boston, at last has been found here.

SUPERFLUOUS HAIR CURED

Lady Will Send Free to any Sufferer the Secret Which Cured Her.

From childhood I was distressed and harassed by an excessive growth of hair on my face and arms. I tried all the depilatories, powders, liquids, and ointments, and in vain. I was ever heard of, only to make it worse.
For weeks I suffered the electric needle without being rid of my blemish. I spent a great deal of money on various things in vain, until a friend recommended a simple preparation which succeeded where all else failed.

This simple remedy enabled me permanently to rid myself of all trace of unwanted hair, and forever end all embarrassment. It is simple, safe, sure, and can be used privately at home, without fear of pain or blemish.
It makes the electric needle entirely unnecessary. I will tell in detail full particulars to enable any other sufferer to achieve the same happy result as I did. All I ask is a 2-cent stamp for reply. Address
